Literary Agent Slated As Writers' Speaker

Harry Lewis, literary agent, will be guest speaker at the March 17 meeting of Southwest Manuscripters to be held at 8 p. m. in the Clark Stadium, 861 Valley Drive, Hermosa Beach. Lewis, choosing as his topic, "Current Markets," will speak from a practical dollars and cents point of view with regard to what will sell and what will not sell. From his experience in placing picture and television scripts, he will share a variety of marketing tips.

As a member of the Henry Lewis Agency, Los Angeles, Lewis is well qualified to discuss the problems of the writer only, as well as the writer turned director, the writer turned producer and the writer turned story editor. He will conduct an open question and answer period welcoming queries in these related fields.

President Loren Roberts announces March 17 as the deadline on the article contest for Manuscripter members. Articles are to be limited to 2000 words, and the author to qualify as an entrant must be an amateur in this category. All those interested in writing, professional or beginner, are invited to the Manuscripters meeting and coffee hour to follow. Further information may be obtained by calling Mary Edith Lindsey, secretary, at FRontier 2-6129.
